RETURN TO AFRICA

The Swazi people laughed at my love for chasing and photographing the giraffe. There wasn't much free time, but I spent what I could finding and filming big game. One thing I did learn, though, a fat guy cannot outrun a giraffe!

Seriously, we are excited to return to Swaziland in September and October, but not for the big game. Life is anything but a game for the Swazi people. It is a battle, a struggle to survive. We will minister with Mike and Tim Zello as the Global Team and Kevin Ward of Swaziland host a ten-nation Southern African Summit.

In addition, it will be our privilege to record and produce the first CD of Khulula, the Continental African TC choir (which we helped launch last year). From here we will blast off for a 3 nation tour of South Africa, Mozambique and Swaziland. Join the team, sign up for strategic prayer and e-mail updates at Bernstuff@aol.com. We need prayer partners to stand with us as we take on the powers of darkness and prepare Teen Challenge students for outreach ministry. We also hope to help Teen Challenge prepare to move into Bulembu, the new Teen Challenge complex. At 6.2 square miles it includes 1200 homes, 2 schools, a hospital, and a factory and will be used to minister to the needs of addicts as well as AIDS infected and affected children.

Scotland Report

...from e-mail report, May 17
 Actually on Thursday and Friday night, we left the Steve Hill crusade after we did praise and worship. Even though he was great and the altar calls were amazing, since they had over 300 altar workers (that actually understand what other Scottish people were saying), we felt our work in City Centre with the prostitutes and addicts at the Teen Challenge bus was more strategic.

We ministered downtown from 9 p.m. till midnight or 2 AM, then headed home for a spot of sleep.

Over the course of the week we saw over 1000 first-time decisions for Christ. Tim, Michelle, Craig, and I ministered to a family of 7 that didn't get to the crusade until Friday night-but God got them there.

The first day we visited them in Ferguslye... (pronounced Ferguslee) --they prayed to receive Christ. On the last day, they invited our entire team into their home for tea. There were tears in Tim Zello's eyes when he said-- "This is just like Zacchaeus's house -- they invited us and now salvation is come to this home."

On Thursday night, the Book of Hope team joined us on the street. Travis sang and the Rap Team from New England Teen Challenge brought a bigger PA. The New England TC rappers and street ministers, were great. We had a wonderful time.

This picture is a capsule of a night of ministry in City Center. As I sing "What Will You Do When the Party's Over?" to two prostitutes, (there were heroin addicts behind me), one of our ladies is praying for a prostitute who had received Christ just moments earlier. She didn't have to go back out on the street that night. She had a chance for a new life in Teen Challenge.
